

George treated my son like one of his own family members. My mother saw him on Court TV and kissed the television!"

- Mother of teen acquitted of manslaughter charges

Mission:

Our firm's practice is to use our experience and knowledge to provide the best legal representation to our clients. We believe in personal attention for each and every client as we understand the anxiety and fear facing criminal charges may cause. We strive to minimize those emotions by keeping our clients advised of all developments in their cases and to answer any questions they may have. Our firm has an impeccable reputation and we intend on maintaining it through the satisfaction of our clients.

George Vomvolakis' Profile:

George Vomvolakis is a prominent criminal defense attorney and civil litigator practicing throughout New York in both state and federal courts. He has successfully represented defendants accused of various crimes such as murder, assault, rape, enterprise corruption, RICO, drug offenses, and DWI, as well as many others. George provides a unique asset to his clients as a former New York City prosecutor with the esteemed New York County District Attorney's Office. As a senior prosecutor for six years George gained valuable insight to the strategies and mind set of prosecutors.

George Vomvolakis has been involved in several high profile cases and has appeared on multiple news programs as a legal analyst. His ability as a criminal attorney is highly regarded by both clients and colleagues as a result of his diligent efforts and proven results.

George Vomvolakis also represents plaintiffs in an array of civil cases including civil rights violations, discrimination, and personal injury. He has attained high settlements and verdicts in several cases.

George Vomvolakis is admitted to practice in all state and federal courts of New York but has represented individuals all over the country.